

2020 IOWA BLACK POWDER FEDERATION RAFFLE 1858 REMINGTON STAINLESS TARGET

THE SPIRIT OF AMERICA (Framed print)

By David Wright

(Note: First ticket drawn will be called and given choice of either pistol or print. Second ticket drawn will receive the remaining item)

The Colt 1836 patent in 1857, and the next year, Remington introduced a solid-frame design that was both elegant and reliable. The 1858 Remington became so famous that it was the prevailing choice of military officers following the Civil War. Its full-frame design still makes it a top choice for black powder shooters today as the cylinder can be removed without taking the firearm completely apart, unlike the Colt models. The stainless-steel Remington features a stainless-steel frame, brass triggered, octagonal barrel, dovetail front blade and rear adjustable target sights, walnut two-piece grips, and a smooth cylinder with safety notches cut in the top. A conversion cylinder is available for this model that is a drop-in conversion to smokeless ammunition. (The one offered by the IBPF is the very unusual and no longer available 12-inch barrel.)

"The Spirit of America" depicts a group of self-reliant settlers as they take the country westward. Each and all, in their indomitable ways, represent the unique spirit that has always characterized the American people. As they faced forthrightly the unknown, as they stared down life-threatening risk, as they challenged the wilderness head-on; they persevered, they planted their flag. They carried freedom and democratic ideals on their backs and have earned the gratitude of the generations that have followed. They epitomize the Spirit of America.

Artist David Wright: "The Spirit of America" symbolizes the rugged determination of those courageous Americans who settled our country and laid the base for the greatest nation in the world. A most appropriate quote, worded by my good friend, Flavil Q. Van Dyke, says it all: "On the shoulders of selfless contributions of our dedicated forefathers allow the promise of continued freedom and prosperity and hope."

You are receiving a packet of 8 tickets and a self-addressed envelope for your convenience. Tickets are $3.00 each or 8 for $20.00.
